Microcosm

Here is your 1933 "Mic"; it is the result of a whole year's work by the staff. We have tried to compile "a record of the college year, its work, its fun, and its activities." It is our hope that it meets with your approval. If this Mic will serve to bring back happy memories in the years to come, we shall have accomplished our purpose.

Now we sing to show the praises
To our most worthy duck.
We don't know what he'll bring us;
We hope it's lots of luck.
No other class can claim him;
He's ours in lifelong trust.
The reason why we love him is
He's our mascot!

From My Wide Window

From my wide window The leafy branches Are traced in green Against the sky; Cool-jaded mazes On pale blue velvet Design soft-shaded Attract my eye.

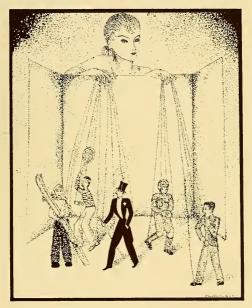

From my wide window
The laughing breezes
Play havoc with a cloud far up above.
A fleecy castle
Aimlessly driven
By impish flurries in playful love.

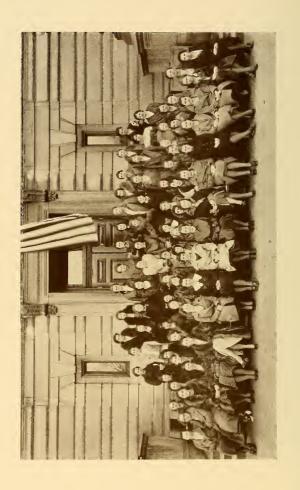

From my wide window All things are lovely, Drawn like a picture Of wondrous skill; Those cool-colored pictures Sketched against heaven, The Master Artist Is peerless still.

B. CHACE.

Every Simmons student is a member of Student Government Association, the largest and most important student organization at Simmons. The Association elects twelve members to form Student Government Council, which meets weekly to consider student administrative problems and routine. This Council regulates all student affairs, organizes constructive policies and legislates on all suggestions brought to it by the Association. It is an all-inclusive organization through which the various college activities are coördinated; it is the nucleus around which centers and from which comes the spirit of the student body and its various organizations.

This year Student Government Council has been particularly concerned with the inauguration of the new Freshman Plan, and with the extensive checking-up of all organization and class constitutions. The new Freshman Plan has been devised to assist the Freshmen in becoming orientated to college living, and to educate them in the policies and principles of Student Government. Student Government has tried this year also to systematize its various branches and to make them more efficient.

Dormitory Council

Dormitory Council is charged with the regulation of dormitory affairs and with the enforcement of the Simmons Code. From this Council arise recommendations for the betterment of dormitory life, which are sent first to the Student Government Council for ratification, and then to Advisory Board for final sanction. Dormitory Council attempts to interpret the rules to the resident students and to encourage a feeling of respect for them.

This Council is made up of the Vice-President of Student Government, who is Chairman of the Council, all House Chairmen, and House Senions. Through a decision of this year's Council, House Seniors will be abolished in the future, as it is strongly felt that the desirable contact between the Freshmen and the upper classmen is adequately taken care of by the new Freshman Plan and the House Juniors.

Honor Committee

Chairman . ETHEL FISHER
Secretary MARGARET ALVORD

In accordance with changes demanded in the new Honor System, adopted by Simmons two years ago, Honor Committee was established as successor to the old Judicial Board. While the committee deals with violations of the Honor System in the academic field, it has as its chief duty the education of the student with respect to maintaining the conduct required under this honor principle.

Almost since the founding of Simmons the students have had an Honor System in operation. The new system, the standard of which is undeniably high, has been almost unanimously accepted by both the faculty and students, and it is felt that once firmly established it will be an invaluable part of the college. Honor Committee is made up of three Seniors and three Juniors elected by Student Government Council, and the President of Student Government, who is a member ex officio.

Dormitory Board

For the purpose of considering all offenses against Student Government dormitory regulations, there exists within Dormitory Council a Dormitory Board which is composed of ten members: the Vice-President of Student Government, who is Chairman of the Board; three Seniors, two Juniors, one Sophomore, and one Freshman elected by the Dormitory Council; and the President of Student Government and the Chairman of Honor Committee, who are members ex officio. The Board has as its aim the education of the student in the Council's policies rather than exemplary punishment.

Dormitory Advisory Board was newly created last year to aid Student Government Council in its dormitory problems. The Board is composed of the Dean, three members of the instructing staff who are graduates of the college appointed by the President, and three members of Student Council.

All dormitory rules and questions proposed by the Student Government Council are referred to this Board and must be approved by it to become final. It is the Conference Committee of the dormitory field and its services are very valuable.

Academy must be a society—not merely an honor roll! This has been our objective they year and we most sincerely hope that we have started on the road to the realization of our ideal.

We want to serve—not only as a recognition for students having a certain academic average, but as an opportunity for creative thinking and the integration of ideas and ideals which will aid in enabling us to broaden, improve and inspire our own lives and the lives of others.

The Christian Science Organization meets every Monday afternoon at 4:15 in the Assembly Hall. Its meetings are open testimonial meetings, to which interested members of the faculty and student body are cordially invited. The annual lecture was given by a member of the Board of Lectureship of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston, Massachusetts, in February.

The purpose of the organization is to bring about a greater realization of friendship and coöperation among the Christian Scientists of the College; to increase friendship and love for all members of the College; and to offer to those so desiring an opportunity to learn the truth of Christian Science.

Ellen Richards Club

The founding of the Ellen Richards Club, in 1920, was the result of a desire to stimulate an interest in science, and to promote good fellowship among the science students. Membership in the club was formerly open only to Juniors and Seniors in the Science School, but it has this year been extended so that it now includes all students in the School of General Science. At the monthly meetings, which are in the form of teas, prominent speakers present ideas of current interest. We have enjoyed trips through two industrial plants. Students are also encouraged to attend scientific lectures given in and around Boston.

Scientific meetings are alternated by social gatherings. The initiation of new members, the annual birthday celebration, and the spring picnic all form a part of the year's program.

The Home Economics Club is the professional organization of the Department and is affiliated with the New England and National Home Economics Associations. Through speakers who are authorities in their fields, the club aims to acquaint its members with vocational opportunities available for those trained in Home Economics. The program this year has included speakers on other subjects of current interest and some social service work in the form of Red Cross sewing.

The funds raised by dues, food sales and catering enable the Club to send a representative from the Junior Class to the National Convention; to be a member of the New England and National Home Economics Associations; to contribute to foreign scholarships; and to finance a banquet at the end of the year to welcome the new Sophomore members.

The aim of the Simmons College Menorah Society is to advance Jewish culture, to foster better acquaintance among the Jewish students, and to prepare the students for intelligent participation in the solution of Jewish problems.

¹ This is the sixteenth year of the existence of the Society. Last year a scholarship was founded on funds obtained from a play and dance; this year a similar plan was undertaken. It is hoped that in a year a scholarship may be offered to some worthy Jewish student. The Society has tried through meetings of all types to foster open-minded discussion of Jewish life and thought—past, present, and future.

The Newman Club, of which all Catholic students are automatically members, is one of the largest in Simmons. It is a member of the National Federation of College Catholic Clubs and also the New England Federation.

The purpose of the Club is to further the study of social problems as they affect the Catholic Church, and to bring about a united friendship among the Catholic Simmons students. Discussions are carried on by prominent priests at the monthly meetings which are held in the Lounge. The other activities of the Club consist of Communion Breakfasts, a retreat, teas, and a formal dance. The Club also has been active in assisting the New England Province of the Federation of College Catholic Clubs in their charity program.

It is the aim of the Club to live up to the ideals and standards of its honorable patron,

Cardinal Newman.

President BEATRICE CHACE

The Poetry Club since its origin three years ago has been interested chiefly in the creative writer. This year, however, it has sponsored also the study of the less known poets of ancient and modern times. The Club, which has been stimulated by Mr. de Mille's personal interest, is now enjoying the combination of the discussion and the creative writing at informal meetings.

creative writing at informal meetings.

Since the appearance of "Arrows," the title volume of verse, there has been a large amount of fine verse by Club members accepted for Per-Simmons, the literary magazine.

Again this year the Club has been asked to read before the Boston Center of the Poetry Society of England. The Faculty tea, an annual event, was approved highly by the members. "Arrows Released," the weekly column in the News, has still been an outlet for poetic expression.

Poster Association is not a new organization but one that is growing more important and apparent each year. Posters are to be seen on the main bulletin boards at all times throughout the year, announcing various college functions and activities. This is the main responsibility of the Association.

Our committee is still very small and it is difficult to find more talent, due to limited acquaintance with all schools of the college, but new members are always welcome. Membership in the Association is an honorary position and appointments are made by the faculty adviser, who knows of the student's native ability and her capability of doing satisfactory poster work.

The aim of Scout Club is to bring together girls of similar ideals and interests, and to carry on the spirit of Girl Scouting through college. We try to do this by having informal suppers at the Freshman dormitories, and teas in the Lounge with outside speakers who are active in Scouting, so that we may have some contact with official Scouting.

Our membership is limited to girls who are now scouts, or who have been in the past. Since service is one of the keynotes of Girl Scouting, we try to be of some use to the community. Our service, this year, consisted in giving a Hallowe'en party for a Scout Troop at the Good Will Sertlement House in East Boston, and dressing dolls for the Community Health Association to give away at Christmas. We have also been making scrapbooks and puzzles for sick children. An outdoor meeting at Cedar Hill will complete our year's program.

After four years of steady progress the Debating Society has achieved a name among other colleges and universities, as the many challenges received during the year showed.

The Debating Society started the year off with a twofold plan of debating economic and political questions, as well as questions pertaining to our school curriculum. Due to the untiring work of Miss Crockett the par of debating has been lifted. During the year she lectured on "The Presentation of Evidence."

Teas and socials were omitted as the Society spent a year in actual debating, in the hope that it will soon be able to take its place with other colleges in intercollegiate debating.

Other activities were a Christmas radio concert over WBZ, and the new experience of singing with an orchestra, namely the Melrose Orchestral Society. We anticipate another Sunday concert, a musical program in some church, and we hope to sing at Pops this year. Instrumental Club and the smaller groups within it have played at teas and faculty

This year the Y. W. C. A. has tried to bring to the attention of a larger group of girls its many interests and activities. In this work the membership committee has concentrated especially on the Freshman Class, and by organizing trips to museums and game nights at the "Y" has done much in bringing this about. The Student Industrial group and the Inter-race Committee have carried on extensive programs.

An increasing interest in world affairs has led to participation in several meetings, such as the one that discussed the Foreign Missions Report and the anti-Fascist meeting in April.

The "Y" is extremely sorry that it cannot hold its annual conference at Maqua this year, but hopes that many girls will join the group which will meet nearer Boston.

The girls who have taken an active interest in this organization cannot help but feel that the many interesting people they have met, the wider knowledge of world affairs they have gained, and the fun they have had will be a help to them at college and remembered afterwards.

The founding of the 020 Club last year by a group of Library Seniors was the result of a desire to further the social relationship among the Juniors, Seniors and Graduates of the Library School and to strengthen their professional interest by contact with well-known librarians at the socials.

We were fortunate in having as our guest speakers, at our initial meeting of the year, Mr. and Mrs. Cronin, who are famous for their story hours in many of the libraries about Boston.

Because of the newness of this organization, progress has been slow and our steps often hesitating, but we hope that the club activities will be carried on in the future with enthusiasm and success.

The Dramatic Association has had a very successful year and the members feel very much encouraged by the interest and support they have received. In the fall the college play, "Berkeley Square," by John L. Balderson, was presented at the Civic Repetrory Theatre. In March the Three Competitive Plays were presented at Whitney Hall. The Ruth Lansing Memorial Cup, which was established last year, was awarded to the Class of 1936.

The Dramatic Association is very much indebted to the Corporation of Simmons College for the financial aid which made its productions possible.

								R. HARRY M. VARRELL

The Simmons News has now finished its tenth year of Thursday appearances, and its third of free distribution, thanks to the efficient handling of advertisements, the hearty student support of the News Dance, and the financial assistance of the Coöperative Society.

"The object of this organization is to maintain a spirit of good fellowship among the students and to help them to keep in touch with the life of the college by means of articles and editorials setting forth the college news of the week, and commenting upon college conditions in general." Besides intensifying its efforts to accomplish this object stated in its Constitution, News has introduced a few innovations to certain phases of its organizations, notably the new and successful office of technical editor.

The last action of the staff this year was the announcement of the new News managing board and staff at a breakfast held in the Lounge April 21. At that time 1933 surrendered leadership and turned over the management of News to 1934.

EMILY DIXON the college since December,

Under the leadership of Mr. Warkins, publicity director of the college since December, 1930, Press Board, with about twelve members covering Boston and out-of-rown papers, strives to obtain the best kind of publicity for the college.

Since financial aid was withdrawn this year, it was necessary to discontinue the clipping service. However, in an effort to record their work, a scrapbook of clippings from Boston papers has been kept by members of the board. Proceeding on a self-supporting basis, Press Board has been able to meet its current expenses through a tag day in the fall, and it is hoped that by next year clipping service will be resumed.

Per-Simmons, started in 1931 as a literary supplement to News, continued in 1932 as a supplement, but in magazine rather than in newspaper form, appeared this year twice as an independent publication.

Per-Simmons has the following as its purpose: "to provide a medium for the expression of the creative effort of the students and to help them gain a clearer perspective of the creative work of their classmares," and to stimulate interest in prose writing, held this year two open meetings with guest speakers interested in college literary effort. Support is becoming more generous each year and Per-Simmons looks forward to appearing more frequently in the near future.

The Simmons Athletic Association, continuing in its purpose to promote interest in athletics and physical education, has broadened the field of its interests during the year 1932-1933. Hockey, archery, tenins, riding, swimming, basketball, tap dancing, and baseball proved as popular as ever and were by no means affected by the enthusiasm created by our new ventures. Ping-pong and badminaton tournaments, the faculty pairing off with students, were new this year and were so successful that they will probably have a definite place in next year's program. Outdoor basketball and deck tennis were added to the list of spring sports and proved to be strong rivals of baseball. The winter sports program, on account of the weather, was limited to two week-ends at Lake Ponkapog.

Standards for winning the covered blazer were raised, making it more of an honor and achievement than ever to earn one. 1932-1933 has been an interesting year and the Athletic Association hopes that the cooperation and enthusiasm of the student body will continue to be as encouraging and helpful next year as it has been this year.

Simmons Red Cross Life Saving Corps

For over ten years Life Saving has held a place among the sports at Simmons. The courses are given at the Y. W. C. A. pool, under the direction of Captain Jack Wallace, The first course, for Senior Life Savers, begins early in the fall. Following this is a training course for those who wish to become Examiners and to teach Life Saving. This year seven passed their Senior tests, and ten received Examiner's rating.

Tennis Team

Tennis had a very successful fall season, what with over ninety girls signing up for singles and about fifteen couples playing in the faculty-student doubles. The four class winners of the singles played off their matches, and a Sophomore and a Junior met in the finals. In the spring the annual doubles tournament was held and we spectators saw some fine playing by members of the Sophomore and Junior classes.

FEATURES

1933's Weddings

A lifelong friendship is pledged by the two classes in this ceremony. In November each year the Freshman President, as the blushing bride, is united to the Junior President, a manly figure in her tuxedo. The ceremony is most impressive and solemn; the wedding breakfast and cake are delicious; and the guests are world-wide celebrities. Shall you ever forget Mahatma Ghandi, Bluebeard, Al Capone and his Bodyguard, or the bride's cousins from East Overshoe?

Freshman Frolic

Having forsworn all "childish things" on attaining the state of Freshmen, with what relief we fling our dignity to the winds and abandon ourselves to rompers and frolics on that afternoon in May. Then we play London Bridge, Drop-the-handkerchief, and all those games which were such fun, and top it all with hot-dogs, ice cream, and lollipops.

Track Day

"Field day was won by the class of '33," quoting from News. We also carried off the honors for costumes and received honorable mention in the song contest. There has not been any track day the last two years, but the fun we had Freshman and Sophomore years is worth remembering.

Picnics

Remember the scramble to make the boat, then the wonderful sail down? There was dancing, when the boat did not rock too badly, singing, and all sorts of fun. Then the day on the beach basking in the sun, with a few hardy souls going bathing, the roller skating with its aftermath of aching bones, and the ride home again, quieter than before, with the "Pal" song for good-night.

Sophomore Luncheon

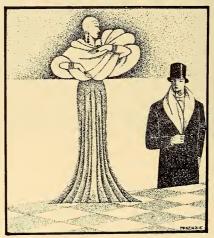

Weren't we thrilled that day when we received our rings. There were those ducky programs; the centerpiece carrying out the lavender and yellow color scheme; and the brand new duck, all white and fluffy. Then those good-looking Freshman waitresses brought in the yellow duck ices in nests of lavender spun sugar, adding the finishing touch to a perfect luncheon.

Sophomore May Lay

We showed real class spirit that morning, really the middle of the night to most of us, when we went out into the cold gray dawn to serenade our Senior sisters and to invite them to join us in a breakfast of strawberry shortcake. The King and Queen, looking very distinguished, were there with all their court, while a company of their players enacted a pantomime of Cinderella.

Senior Hobo Party

The ghosts walked again that night, but they must have been ashamed to associate with the tramps who held a "Reunite" in North Hall basement. After shaking hands with an "electrified" skeleton, we played games, bobbed for apples, and finally brought the evening to a close by drinking cider and eating little favors made of doughnuts, apples and marshmallows. Mr. Jones, Jackie Fisher, and Billie Barsky won the prizes for costumes.

Step Singing

When the starlit evening shadows, And the springtime days draw near, You can hear the classes singing Near the steps they hold so dear. O the songs that we remember Are the songs that have been made Just for us to sing together At the vine-clad colonnade.

When the riverway is changing With sunset colors bright, And the elm trees' leaves a-quiver Peer down from lofty height, You can hear the classes singing, Near the steps they hold so dear, The songs that shall re-echo In our hearts from year to year.

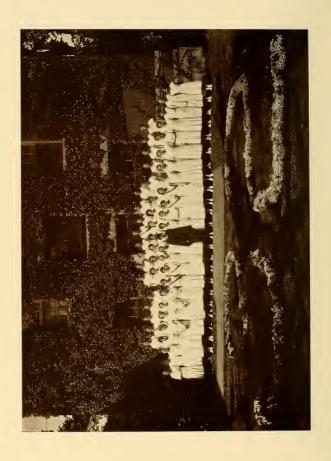

Ye Olde English Dinner

"Our Lord and Lady bid ye welcome to this Christmas feast."

One of the loveliest and oldest of Simmons traditions is the Christmas dinner carried out in ye olde English manner. Student Government Council appears in colorful medieval attire with my Lord and Lady of the manor leading the way. Christmas spirit is high with the prosaic refectory transformed into an old hall with holly and green fir boughs, dim candlelight and the real old English feast topped off with the flaming boar's head. All Campus and many faculty guests do juggling acts with knives, as forks are not accepted at this bit of revelty. Jesters, carolers, and the traditional St. George and the Dragon for entertainment all add in making this occasion one to be remembered.

The Weathervane on Faneuil Hall is a heavy copper grasshopper fashioned by the hand of Deacon Shem Drowne in 1742. It fell to the ground during the earthquake that visited Boston in 1755. It suffered a like fate when Faneuil Hall was burned in 1761 and again by accident in 1889. But though often repaired it is still in place above the dome on the CRADLE OF LIBERTY.
